* "Regular" students are those who are admitted through the Institute's own admission mechanisms and supported by the Institute through government grants, or R&D or endowment funds. This includes students in the Start Early PhD, Early Admit MTech, Early Admit MSc, Work and Study MTech programs, but not students admitted directly into the PGDIIT program.
Revised tuition fees of Rs. 10,000 for regular MTech, MSc, MA students will only be applicable to students joining in July 2022 and later. Existing students will continue paying current tuition fee of Rs. 5,000 per semester.
$ "Other" students are those who are supported/sponsored by external organizations (e.g., PRL students, employees of organizations such as ISRO-SAC, officers of the Indian Armed Forces, etc.), as well as students admitted by IITGN directly into the PGDIIT program. The revised tuition fees of Rs. 50,000 and the revised continuation fee for sponsored PhD students will be applicable to all students in this category (including existing students) from July 2022 onwards.

^ These items are applicable in lumpsum (no pro-rata discounts), but only when a student stays in the hostels. The charges cover a period from 5 days before registration to 5 days after the last date of exams, and include the mid-semester break. For new students however, the period will begin from 2 days before the start date of their orientation program (Foundation Programme, Aarohan, etc.) or the date of registration (whichever is earlier) and go until 5 days after the last date of exams.

Students of BTech-MTech Dual Degree and BTech-MSc Dual Degree are required to pay the fee applicable for BTech Students till 8th Semester of their study, and thereafter, pay the fee applicable for the MTech/MSc programme till the completion of the requirements of their degree.

Fee for visiting students will be as mentioned above unless there is a formal agreement between IITGN and the Institute/ University for student exchange programme. In such cases, the terms of the agreement will prevail.

Regular PhD and MTech students who convert to PGDIIT will continue paying the tuition fee for the regular programs even after conversion.
